

Conference Schedule

9:00 Welcome: Brian Owensby (Virginia, History) and Richard Ross (Illinois, Law and History)

9:05 to 10:35: Panel: Moral Regulation of Market Activity

- Wim Decock (UCLouvain, Law): "Moral Regulation of the Market between Scholasticism and Modern Natural Law: The Case of Pedro de Oñate's De Contractibus(1646)"
- Mark Peterson (Yale, History): "Market Regulation in Colonial Boston: Exploring a Historical Puzzle"
- Elvira Vilches (Duke, Romance Studies): "Moral Economies and the Early Modern Iberian Book Trade"
- Commentator: Laurent Mayali (Berkeley, Law)
- Chair: Richard Ross (Illinois, Law and History)

10:35 to 10:50: Refreshment Break

10:50 to 12:20: Panel: Money and the Common Good

- Regina Grafe (European University Institute, History): "All that Happened Below 5 Percent: Religious Endowments, Credit, and Interest Rate Discrimination in Colonial Spanish America"
- David Lantigua (Notre Dame, Theology): "Native Americans, European Commerce, and the Providential Nature of Money"
- Simon Middleton (William and Mary, History): "Country Pay and Current Money Conventions in the Seventeenth-Century North American Colonies"
- Commentator: Carl Wennerlind (Barnard, History)
- Commentator and chair: Robert Morrissey (Illinois, History)

12:20 to 1:50: Lunch: Participants and audience members are invited to try the restaurants in the neighborhood around the Newberry.

1:50 to 3:10: Panel: Boundaries of Capital, Contract, and Usury

- Paolo Astorri (Copenhagen, Law): "Business Regulation in Sixteenth-Century Spain and Germany: Catholic and Lutheran Teachings on the Five Percent Contract"
- Luisa Brunori (Université de Lille-Cnrs, Law): "The Turning Point of Early Modern Scholasticism on Company Law: Theology Facing 16th Century Transatlantic Mercantile Practice"
- Commentator: Dwight Codr (Connecticut, English)

- Chair: Brian Owensby (Virginia, History)

3:10 to 3:25: Refreshment Break

3:25 to 4:55 Panel: Society, Economy, and the Vulnerable

- Michelle Molina (Northwestern, Religious Studies and History): "Sacramental Logics on the Jesuit Hacienda"
- Brian Owensby (Virginia, History): "'All Human Life and Health Depend on the Help of Others': Debates on Poor Relief and Society in Sixteenth-Century Spain and England"
- Steven Pincus (Chicago, History): "The Ideological Context of Governor Edward Trelawny of Jamaica's Abolitionism"
- Commentator: Brodwyn Fischer (Chicago, History)
- Commentator and chair: Karen Graubart (Notre Dame, History)

5:00 Adjourn